

PLEASE leave Indiana's no-call list alone. We should have the right to be undisturbed by telemarketers in our own homes. No one wants to go back to the pre-no-call days with the exception of those who abuse the system. We should have the right to the sanctity of our own homes without constant interruption.